J. Ross Fleetwood of the department of soils of the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri, and B. B. Branstetter, an instructor in field crops in the same institution, are in Maryville in connection with the experiments being conducted on the College farm.

Some of the wheat has been threshed and has averaged forty bushels to the acre. On a plot of oats that had no treatment, the yield averaged forty bushels to the acre; on a plot with treatment, the yield was about fifty-seven bushels to the acre.

LIPPMAN FIRE LOSS ESTIMATED $3000

A fire at the home of Adolph Lippman, 1012 North Main street, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, caused an estimated damage of $3000.

It was one of the hardest fires to extinguish that the local fire department has had for some time, Burt M. Rowley, fire chief said this morning. The house is built of cement blocks and it was difficult to get to the attic on account of sheeting which the firemen had to break in addition to the plastering. The flames were confined to the attic and were not entirely extinguished until about 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. Lippman was burning some trash in the furnace and it is thought sparks set fire to the roof, which was covered with wooden shingles and very dry. However, this cause is only a supposition, Mr. Lippman said this morning.

The entire upper story is damaged. The roof was destroyed. The water coming through the attic caused the plastering and ceilings on the upper floor to be greatly damaged and much of the plastering is coming off. All of the walls and ceilings were finished in oil. Much of the flooring will have to be refinished.

The dining room and kitchen down stairs are also greatly damaged, as the water leaked through from the floor above and soaked the walls and ceilings down stairs.

Some of the furniture was damaged by the water and falling plastering, Mr. Lippman said this morning. A few pieces of clothing were also damaged.

The flames never got below the attic, the fire chief said. An accident to the chemical compound container also caused a slowing up of the work of the firemen. The men were forced to cut through the plastering upstairs to get to the attic in order to combat the flames. A large portion of the water used to extinguish the fire came through from the attic to the upper floor and then down stairs. In one room, the water stood about an inch deep.

Mr. Lippman has $3,000 insurance on the house.

The city fire department received a check for $25 from Mr. Lippman this morning, Burt M. Rowley, fire chief, said. This was given in appreciation for their services yesterday afternoon.

The money will be deposited in the firemen's fund which is used to care for sick or injured members of the fire department or their families.

They were returning from the Maitland fair when the accident occurred. After receiving medical aid they drove on to Clarinda last night.

"The work at camp will be not unusually difficult and every man will enjoy it. There will be facilities for swimming and every man is urged to take a bathing suit along with him. There is no expense to the trip wahtever—Uncle Sam pays the bill and gives the men a real two weeks' vacation.

"If any man really feels like he can't go, he can come to the battery commander and make application for an excuse. However, if he does not make this application and is absent when we leave Saturday, then he will be treated as absent without leave. Ife he reports for training before the camp ends, a good excuse may be accepted. If he does not, then he will be tried. P. O. Department Is Now Making Money

Washington, July 26—The American postal system is on a self-supporting basis for the first time when increased postal rates boomed postal revenues, officials of the treasury department said today.

Postmaster-General New's effective and far-reaching economies which in no way has been calculated to reduce the efficiency, has assured the director of the budget that the postal department will show a surplus at the end of the present fiscal year. This will be the first surplus since 1919.

The postal deficit was 32 million dollars last year and twice that much the year before. The post office department has made money during the first month of this fiscal year, although they rolled up a 12 million dollar deficit for the same period last year.

BOLSHEVISM GREAT DANGER TO EUROPE

The Reverend Father Patrick Cummins and the Reverend Father Damian Cummins were in Maryville yesterday afternoon on their way to visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cummins, who live near Burlington Junction. The Rev. Father Patrick is rector of the International Benedictine College at Rome, having held that position for the past three years. His brother, the Rev. Father Damian, has been a student at the College for the past three years.

In an interview with the Democrat-Forum, the Rev. Father Patrick in speaking of Europe said:

"The great danger seems to be the fear that the Bolshevist tendency will get the upper hand, more especially in Germany beneath the French oppression in the Ruhr district. The impression seems to prevail that Bolshevism will spread over all of Europe, if it gets the upper hand in Germany.

"A year ago this summer I visited in Germany. The people as a whole, particularly in the cities, were in quite a poor condition, especially the class dependent on salaries and those with real estate. It was also noticeable among the nobility, the girls of that class not being able to have their shoes repaired. These condition are worse now with the steady decline of the value of the mark.

"Italy has been much better the past year under the premiership of Mussolini, head of the Fascisti party. Where formerly there were strikes, there have been no strikes during this past year. Where the trains were never on time, now one is never late. Telegrams, for instance to London, took seven hours and now they take one hour. Some doubt has been expressed as to the future, based on ignorance as to the aims of Mussolini and his ability to keep his own party under control."

Father Patrick said he was very glad when he arrived in Missouri. On his entire trip, he said he saw nothing as green and fresh as the fields here. Continuing he stated:

"You can not imagine a greater contrast between the prosperity as evidenced on all hands here and the desolation and suffering prevailing in many parts of Europe."

Father Patrick is home for a two months' visit with his parents and relatives and will then return to Rome to continue his work as Rector of the College there. Father Damian was ordained as a priest at the Saint Apollinaris Church in Rome on July 9, 1922. Since that time he has continued his studies at the College at Rome. He will be connected with the Conception College as a professor in some capacity after September 1.

Father Patrick and Father Damian left Rome on June 29, and spent a few days in Paris. They also visited at Lisieux, France, the home of "The Little Flower," the highest honor to be bestowed in the Catholic Church. This woman was famous for her aid to the soldiers on the battle fields. They were there on the Fourth of July and every public building was decorated with the Stars and Stripes. They sailed from Cherbourg, France on July 5, and landed in New York City on July 15. The trip on the ocean was mild and pleasant and was made on the "President Arthur," a ship of the United States Shipping Board. Since that time they have visited with relatives at Hartford, New York, Brooklyn and Pittsburgh.

A visit was made to Conception Abbey Wednesday morning by Father Patrick and Father Damian. They visited with Abbot Philip. Father Patrick is a life long member of Conception Abbey.

On their trip to Burlington Junction they were accompanied by their relative, Mrs. Elizabeth Preston of Hartford, Conn., who will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cummins. They visited here yesterday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tobin.

FRANCO-BELGIAN DISSENSION GONE

Paris, July 26.—The foreign office has no knowledge of the lifting of the Ruhr blockade, it was officially announced this afternoon.

London, July 26—The French and Belgians announced that the blockade of the occupied area of Germany has been raised, said a news agency dispatch from Berlin today.

Paris, July 26—France and Belgium have reached a satisfactory compromise upon their differences of opinion over reparations and the Ruhr, the Petit Journal announced today.

The differences were not serious but formed considerable obstacles in the way of negotiations for a joint reply to the British reparation note. Premier Poincare confirmed the report that France and Belgium are now in complete accordance regarding the reply to be made to London.

While France and Belgium will make a common reply to Great Britain they will send separate notes to London as soon as possible.

Premier Poincare feels that negotiations with Brussels and London have progressed far enough to permit him spending the weekend at his country home. He plans to return to Paris the first of next week to confer with Premier Theunis of Belgium.

Article About Capt. Scott K. Snively

The following article appeared recently in the Sheridan, Wyo., paper about Capt. Scott K. Snively, who lived five miles south of Maryville about twenty-five years ago. Captain Snively will be well remembered for the old residents of Nodaway County. The following is the article:

Capt. Scott K. Snively, former judge here and his bride of two weeks formerly Mrs. Rachel A. Cline, now living at Blockton, Ia., conduct the "cleanest little hotel in Iowa," according to a story, "Tales of the Trails" by "Jenks" appearing in Sunday's issue of the Chicago Daily Tribune.

In his story which "Jenks" describes as the "meanderings of modern nomads of gasoline trails," the writer tells of the trials of his travels over the Iowa state highway from Afton to Blockton, as follows:

"At Blockton we found the tiny town still up and enjoying Saturday night in the soda parlor, and the cleanest little hotel in Iowa, run by an old lady who belongs in the hall of fame.

"'Just go right up and pick out your room,' she adivsed us, he nightcapped head appearing in a little office window. Breakfast at seven. We'll have it late tomorrow,

LESSON IN CANADIAN -U. S. FRIENDSHIP

With President Harding in Vancouver, B. C., July 26—President Harding made history today. He went to Canada, the first American president ever to set foot upon Canadian soil, with an inspirational message of American friendship and peace which has existed more than a hundred years on no firmer foundation than a scrap of paper.

This enduring record of Canadian-American peace, maintained without frontier fortifications or warlike display along the Great Lakes, affords an object lesson for the entire world, Harding declared in his first speech in Canadian territory, delivered before a distinguished audience at Stanley Park.

"The Canadian-American contentment and prosperity, without quarrels or arms, should provide a great moral lesson to European countries, who continue to criticize and envy North American prosperity," he declared. "Yet they consistently refuse to take the medicine which would cure the ills and provide them with similar peace and prosperity.

"If only Europe would heed the lesson taught by Canada and the United States," he continued, "They would strike at the root of our own contentment and prosperity and forget to inveigh constantly at ours.

"That we should reproach them for envy and resentment is but a manifestation of human nature, although we would rather see them break the shackles of age-long methods and rejoice in the freedom from the stultifing effect of the old world customs and practices. We are not palsied by the habits of a thousand years. Others derive satisfaction from contemplating a resplendent past. We have in reality only a present with our ears and eyes chiefly on the future."

Harding said that we had no "departed greatness," no "lost provinces to regain, no new territory to covet, no ancient grudges" to "naw eternally at the heart of our national conscience."

The Presiednt mentioned no names in citing the off-used causes of war, but the application to Central Europe was unmistakable.

The President referred to England as the Motherland, to Canada and the United States as Sisterlands, and told his audience that the "ancient bugaboo of the United States scheming to annex Canada disappeared in our minds years ago." Continuing he said:

"Heaven knows that we have all we can manage now," and added humorously, "If I might offer a word of advice it would be, don't encourage any enterprise that would look forward to Canada annexing the United States. You are the most governed people in the world but I entreat you for your own sake to think twice before undertaking to handle the territory between the Great Lakes and the Rio Grande."

Red Crown

The High-Grade Gasoline

Adds to the Joy of Motoring

THE spirit of the day is to be out in the open; to seek the by-places; to get closer to nature; here today, there tomorrow.

Hard roads and automobiles have made it possible for one to do all of these things in the companionship of his family.

The chief contributing factor to motoring is gasoline—the chief joy of motoring is to know you have a dependable gasoline in the tank. Red Crown, the High-Grade Gasoline, is dependable. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) guarantees the uniformity of Red Crown.

With Red Crown in your tank your motor sings along the road; eager, purring, at a snail's pace or at high speed, as you please.

Red Crown is always the same, no matter where you get it, and you can get it everywhere—every few blocks in the city; every few miles in the country.

THIS LITTLE BABY GIRL

Was Benefited by the Good Her Mother Got from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my little girl was born, and the effect it had was wonderful. This will be the first child I have nursed, as I had to bring my two boys up on the bottle. I was very nervous and worried, tired all the time, and after I read about the Vegetable Compound I tried it and kept on with it. I still continue its use and recommend it to my friends. You may publish these facts as a testimonial for your medicine."—Mrs. Wm. Klinge, 169 Plymouth St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after the birth of the child, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother at this time. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.
